SJSU Cadre Media Lab

Digital Media Art Show

27th of April 2019

Hammer Theater

For Immediate Release: 4/10/19

On Saturday, April 27 from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM, the graduating students of San Jose State University's Digital Media Art (DMA) program will host DMA::iRI.

This event showcases the students individual BFA exhibitions. Visitors will be able to see a variety of different artworks such as video editing, projection mapping, VR (virtual reality), installations, and interactive artworks. These talented, emerging artists will be featuring what they have learned and gained through hard work and experience from years within the DMA program.

This event, marking its second year for the DMA program, will be taking place at the Hammer Theatre Center in Downtown San Jose. Admission to the event is free and open to the public. Food and drink will be provided for guests.
