

DMA::lrL

---

EXHIBITION

SJSU Cadre Media Lab

Digital Media Art Show

26th of April 2019

Hammer Theater

For Immediate Release: 4/10/19

On Saturday, April 27 from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM, graduating students of San Jose State University's Digital Media Art (DMA) program will host DMA::lrL.

This event showcases the students' individual BFA exhibitions. Visitors will be able to see a variety of different artworks such as video editing, projection mapping, VR (virtual reality), installations and interactive mediums. These talented, emerging artists will be featuring what they have learned and gained through hard work and experience from years within the DMA program.

This event, marking its second year for the DMA program, will be located at the Hammer Theatre Center in Downtown San Jose. Admission to DMA::lrL is free and open to the public and food will be provided for guests.

Please contact [blank] at (contact #) or Contact (some email address) for information

