

For my BFA project, I want to make a live interactive installation.
There will be a screen, a projector and Xbox Kinect that tracks the movement.
When people enter the projection area, the system tracks motion and generates real-time art which is projected on the wall. This will create dynamic visual experience.

Programming softwares: Processing

Sensors: Xbox Kinect

Other equipment: a projector

